Leadership is essential for assessment work to succeed. Leaders must have a clear performance ethic...be visibly and continuously committed to assessment work...understand its importance to the success of the organization...show evidence of utilizing assessment and evaluation data...need to encourage risk-taking...continuously articulate the organization’s purpose...engage in meaningful strategic dialog within the organization...develop incentive programs that support cultural change.” (Lakos & Phipps, 2004)

Inexperience with Evaluation Methods

“Assessment cannot be seen as a separate ‘management activity’ but must be appreciated and valued by all members of the culture and assumed to be part of their regular work...if organizations are serious about change, they need to invest in the development of new skills to sustain it.” (Lakos & Phipps, 2004)
